

Lucky was busy being mischievous turning over chairs spreading gold dust and leaving little foot prints throughout the school while the children were outside playing. What a surprise when they came back to class.

Lucky even turned our lunch green but it still tasted great. It was lots of fun.